SOURCING MEASUREMENT GAUGES

■ THE PROBLEM

Lodestar's customer, a large producer of industrial gauges was faced with a high degree of scrap (>40%) from its current supplier of castings. Since most of the defects were identified only after significant processing was done which resulted in very high rejection costs.

■ LODESTAR'S SOLUTION

- ▶ Lodestar developed a high quality provider of castings, which included developing and implementing quality systems resulting in a rejection rate of less than 5%.
- ▶ Lodestar produced castings not only were superior in quality but enabled customer to lower overall production cost & improve margins.
